Corgan IT Pathways Scholarship

Corgan is now accepting applications for our IT Pathways scholarship, designed to empower the next generation of technical talent with a passion for software development. This scholarship offers both an academic award and a hands-on internship experience, while deepening our engagement with students and universities.

At Corgan, we're committed to fostering a culture of belonging—a workplace that is welcoming and authentic, where unique perspectives shape innovative, human-centered design. The IT Pathways scholarship extends that commitment by investing in students who will help shape the future of our firm.
